

“Budo Show”

Spectacular demonstration of traditional Karate and Kobudo on the 9th of May 1992 in Basel, Switzerland. With Soke Hayashi and Shihan Mitsuya.

“It was a great success, which fascinated the audience with spectacular displays of great actions. Although the demonstrations of the numerous other masters present to the event were very good, towards the end of the happening the spectators were very pretty tired. There was a loud noise of voices and the audience was not paying much attention anymore. At first when the demonstration of Soke Hayashi and Shihan Mitsuya began, the spectators may have thought of one of the usual shows, but at the first powerful and vibrant Kiai the audience quieted down perceiving the realism of the action of Kobu-Do (Kama vs. Bo) and Karate-Do, and continued to follow the demonstration with great interest and attention in total silence. The show ended with a long clapping of hands from the astonished spectators.

Unforgettable for us, we remember those moments as it would have been yesterday.”
